

Access you data through an FTP Client

Contributed by Yannick KREMPP
Monday, 20 June 2011
Last Updated Monday, 20 June 2011

Here's a quick video tutorial on how to setup a free FTP client software to access the data stored on our ATLAS file server.

Please keep in mind that this will only work on machines that have already access to the UNIL network (authenticated using this link if you're logging from home)

Select 720p (HD) and put the video fullscreen to be able to follow the instructions.